

IP Transactions

Regardless of whether you are an early stage company, an established business, or an individual, KD's attorneys can assist with all of your intellectual property transactional needs:

- Utility and provisional-patent applications related to software technologies, semiconductors and mechanical inventions.
- Trademark/trade-dress registrations
- Proceedings before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) for patent and trademark proceedings
- Licenses and royalty agreements
- Internet and mobile user-agreements, privacy statements and/or policies
- Copyright registrations
