

Gino Zonghetti featured in the NJLJ for his volunteer efforts in Nicaragua

(New Jersey Law Journal, September 13, 2013) Gino Zonghetti, shown, the managing partner at Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck in Hackensack, traveled to Diriamba, Nicaragua, on July 28 to volunteer at two orphanages run by Mustard Seed Communities, a nonprofit that runs orphanages in impoverished countries. Zonghetti's group, from the Church of the Presentation in Upper Saddle River, assisted in constructing an orphanage in Managua, where infants and younger children live.
