Ivan Dolowich a Panelist at the 9/10 PLUS SoCal Chapter Workshop

State of the Market: How It Arrived and Where It's Going
PLUS Southern California Chapter Educational Program

Join us for an interactive discussion, in a debate style forum, about the current State of the Market. We have assembled an impressive slate of speakers which promises to make this event unique, entertaining, and beneficial to anyone in the financial services marketplace. The debate will focus on the life cycle of the underwriting process. The perspective of the underwriting community will be pitted against the claims/legal community and how the retail and wholesale agents and brokers have to communicate the changes in the marketplace to their clients. Finally, a discussion on what this will mean for the management and professional liability marketplace going forward in California.
