

KD Alert: Governor Brown's Budget Cuts May Soon Cost Employers

By Jonathan W. Black (July 26, 2012)

On June 27, 2012, Governor Jerry Brown signed into law SB 1038, which provides significant changes to California's workplace antidiscrimination enforcement. While the bill is intended to streamline California's bureaucratic machine, certain costs may fall to employers.