

Law Firm Opens Westport Office, Adds Partner, New Haven Biz, featuring Reshma Khanna Esq., 2-9-22

The law firm of Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck LLP recently opened a new office in Westport and added a labor and employment partner, Reshma Khanna Khanna will serve as managing partner for the new office. Attorneys there will serve new and existing clients in the areas of labor and employment, professional liability and commercial litigation. The firm's new office is located at 55 Post Road West, Suite 200, Westport.

Michael A. Kaufman, co-managing partner of KD, said when the firm opened its Westchester office last spring and added 11 attorneys in October, it had a goal of increasing its service across the region and reaching into both upstate New York and Connecticut. The firm is based in Long Island and has offices around the country. "Reshma's established relationships in New York and Connecticut will be a great asset as we leverage our platform in the regions," he said. ~~Full~~ article at link below
