

“Litigating in a Post-Covid World,” Panelist, Theodore Roosevelt Inn of Court – November 17, 2020

On Tuesday, November 17, Stephen Brodsky, NY and LI Partner, was one of the presenters speaking on “Litigating in a Post Covid-19 World” to the Theodore Roosevelt Inn of Court. Stephen discussed M&A litigation, and in particular, the use of material adverse change material adverse event (MAC/MAE) clauses during the Covid-19 pandemic. The Theodore Roosevelt Inn of Court is a society of attorneys, judges and law professors in New York.