

Michael Kaufman presenter at Strategies for Mitigating Top Management Liability Exposures in Today's Litigious Environment (Nov 13, 2018)

Co-Managing partner of KD, Michael Kaufman is a speaker at the HUB International Northeast "Strategies for Mitigating Top Management Liability Exposures in Today's Litigious Environment."

In our increasingly litigious society, the threat of a lawsuit hangs over every business, large or small. With the "Me Too" movement and the continuous stories of wrong doings in the workplace flooding the media, it's now more important than ever for organizations and executives to protect themselves.

Hosted by leading global insurance brokerage, HUB International and CHUBB Insurance, join a panel of experts for an important discussion, addressing:

- Common and emerging professional liability exposures
- New and existing workplace litigation organizations must comply with
- Legal responsibilities of directors and officers
- Latest trends in claims that carriers are seeing
- Best practices for developing an airtight management liability security blanket
- An outlook for the professional liability insurance market including:
 - Executive Liability
 - Employment Practices Liability (EPLI)
 - Directors' & Officers (D&O)
 - Errors & Omissions (E&O)

Register

More Info: 11.13 NYC Management Liability Seminar

The Manhattan Club at Rosie O'Grady's 800 7th Ave New York, NY 10019