

Midsize Law Firm Consolidation Heats Up, The American Lawyer, 1-11-2022

Midsize merger momentum has continued into the second business week of 2022, with midsize firms announcing combinations and large group moves in Dallas, Denver and Chicago. Midsize law firms outside the Am Law 200 appear ambitious after especially good financial years in 2021, according to multiple analyses...

Smaller and midsize firms have been particularly active to start 2022. Among other deals announced so far this year is the acquisition by Kaufman Dolowich Voluck, a Long Island, New York-based litigation firm, of an eight-lawyer team from real estate boutique Greenberg, Whitcombe, Takeuchi & Gibson.