Press Release: Wayne Alder Joins KD as Litigation Partner in Firm's Florida Office

(February 16, 2016, Boca Raton, FL) — Kaufman Dolowich &Voluck LLP (KD), a leading national law firm, today announced that Wayne M. Alder, who has more than 25 years of experience as a business litigator, has joined the firm as a Partner in its Boca Raton, FL office.

Alder's practice focuses on litigation matters and general representation of companies, individuals and municipalities related to professional liability cases, including medical, legal and other professional malpractice matters. He also handles the defense of directors and officers against trustees in bankruptcy as well as matters related to marine and shipyard liability, product liability and environmental claims, personal injury and insurance coverage disputes.

Alder comes to Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck from the West Palm Beach, FL office of Becker & Poliakoff, where he was a shareholder concentrating on corporate transactions, insurance litigation and defense.

"Wayne's extensive work in litigation of claims related to business and international transactions, his work with clients and their directors and officers regarding D&O indemnification and insurance issues and his handling of insurance coverage disputes, make him a valuable addition to our expanding global insurance practice," said Ivan J. Dolowich, co-managing partner of KD. "Wayne's experience will also be a tremendous asset to many other KD practices, especially our construction law and maritime and admiralty law practices."

"KD's national platform will enable me to expand my litigation practice and concentrate more on representing insurers and their insureds," said Alder. "KD has a nationally respected global insurance practice and I look forward to becoming an integral part of the KD team across numerous practice areas."

Alder earned his B.A. from Hartwick College and his J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law. He is admitted to practice in Florida and is a member of the Professional Liability Underwriting Society and the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management.

"We're very excited to welcome an experienced litigator and business counsellor like Wayne Alder to our Florida office. Wayne brings additional depth to our existing professional liability defense practice, and covers a range of other practice areas that will be of great service to our Southeast clients and those clients doing business here," said Gregg Breitbart, managing partner of KD's Florida office.
