

Social Media: A Breeding Ground for Malpractice Claims, The Legal Intelligencer

By Philip R. Voluck and Gregory S. Hyman (May 7, 2013)

The 2012 ABA Legal Technology Report indicates that 95 percent of lawyers have a presence on the professional-oriented social media site LinkedIn, while 22 percent maintain a presence on Twitter. Many law firms also maintain Facebook pages, blogs and enhanced websites to attract clients without spending precious marketing dollars.
