

UPMC 'Provision' Could Ward Off Effects of Looming Med Mal Venue Rule Change—If It Can Survive in Court, The Legal Intelligencer, quotes from Christopher Tellner, Esq., and Gregory Brown, Esq., 11-02-2022

Christopher Tellner, Co-Managing Partner and Gregory Brown, Attorney, of our Blue Bell, PA office were quoted in The Legal Intelligencer.

A small clause in the patient contract of a western Pennsylvania health care giant could become a staple for medical networks statewide as they attempt to stave off the effects of a divisive venue rule change. But first, that clause must hold up in court.

Subscribers, please read full article at the link below.