

Craig Glasser

Overview

Of Counsel attorney Craig Glasser concentrates his practice in securities arbitration, professional liability defense, and commercial litigation.

In his securities arbitration work, Mr. Glasser represents insurance and securities industry clients, including broker-dealers, registered representatives, insurance agents, investment advisors and financial planners in both state and federal court, and in Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) arbitrations.

In Mr. Glasser's professional liability practice he defends attorneys, architects, directors and officers, financial services professionals and insurance agents against claims of breach of duty and professional negligence. Mr Glasser additionally has significant experience representing individuals and businesses in commercial litigation cases, including contract disputes, partnership and shareholder disputes, theft of trade secrets, and other business related claims. His litigation work also includes probate administration and estates and trust litigation.
