

Creative Civil Litigation Strategy - Hosted by The Golden Gate University School of Law Litigation Center, February 6, 2019

How to Zealously Advocate for your Client and Efficiently Prepare for Trial -

Not all strategies for civil litigation practice can be found in the code books!

Join the GGU Litigation Center as they host a panel about proper civil case strategy and staying out of conflict with law firm economics.

Join Mr. Louie Castoria, Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck partner & co-chair, of the KD Professional Liability/E&O Practice Group, as he covers strategies to increase efficiency in civil litigation in his presentation, "Economic Realities of Civil Litigation: How Much Process Is Due?"

Golden Gate University School of Law alumni Dustin Cameron and Emily Genge will also speak and share their experiences as new up-and-coming attorneys in the civil litigation field.
