

Demystifying Liability Insurance: a Free Webinar for Attorneys New to the Subject

Many new attorneys have little if any training or experience with the liability insurance industry, though it plays a crucial role in how most civil lawsuits and claims are defended and resolved.

On September 13, 2017, PLUS—the Professional Liability Underwriting Society - will present a free, hour-long webinar to help young lawyers understand the basics of how liability insurance is sold and how insurance coverage affects the outcomes of civil claims and suits. Two prominent speakers on insurance topics, Louie Castoria, Professional Liability Co-Chair at Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck LLP, a national law firm, and Chairman Emeritus of the Insurance Educational Association, and Fred Fisher, a career-long liability insurance broker, former PLUS President, and founder/president of Fisher Consulting Group, Inc. will present a lively and informative primer on insurance concepts and their real-world impacts on legal practice.
