

Ellen Storch Speaker at National Business Institute Seminar

KD EPL partner, Ellen Storch, is a speaker at the National Business Institute's seminar Human Resource Law from A to Z. This seminar is good for CLE credit. It takes place at the Four Point Sheridan hotel in Plainview, NY on February 6-7, 2018. Click here to register for the seminar. Ms. Storch will be presenting two 1-hour presentations on the first day of the seminar, Legal Issues in Recruiting and Hiring and Controlling Unemployment Compensation Costs. The courses will outline issues facing human resources personnel in and solutions to these hurdles, both in a monetary and legal sense.

Legal Issues in Recruiting and Hiring

1. Creating Legally Effective Job Descriptions
2. Writing Job Offers and Rejection Letters That Repel Lawsuits
3. Legal Aspects of Gaining Information Through Criminal Background Checks and Social Media Accounts
4. Drafting Employment Contracts

Controlling Unemployment Compensation Costs

1. General Rules on Who is Entitled to Unemployment Compensation
2. Key Information to Present Regarding the Initial Claim
3. When is it Important to Fight an Unemployment Compensation Claim
4. What you Need to Know About the Hearing Process
5. Traditional Ways to Manage Unemployment Compensation Costs