

Gregory S. Hyman

Overview

Gregory Hyman is the co-managing partner of our Philadelphia, PA office. He has a diverse litigation and counseling practice representing clients in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. He is rated AV® Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell. For more than two decades Mr. Hyman has been defending public and private employers in employment practices liability cases, including discrimination, harassment, wrongful discharge, whistleblower and retaliation, defamation, breach of contract, and wage and hour, before state and federal courts, administrative agencies and arbitration tribunals. Mr. Hyman has extensive experience in the representation of school boards for public, private secondary schools and universities, and charter schools in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He also specializes in defending professionals liability claims involving lawyers, accountants, directors and officers, insurance agents, brokers, title agents, and real estate agents.

In addition to his litigation practice, Mr. Hyman counsels employers on day-to-day workplace issues, employment policies, restrictive covenants, severance contracts, and compliance with federal and state laws. He assists employers in connection with hiring, discipline, and termination decisions and in implementing policies and strategies to prevent claims by drafting and reviewing handbooks and conducting training sessions on equal employment opportunity and sexual harassment. He also assists professionals in developing and implementing risk management policies and practices.

Mr. Hyman is a frequent presenter on employment-related topics and in the area of legal malpractice and risk management.
