KAUFMAN | DOLOWICH

Ivan Dolowich, Co-Managing Partner, to be Honoree at Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center 12th Annual Golf Outing

Ivan Dolowich, co-managing partner of Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck LLP (KD), is being honored on August 2nd, at the 12th annual Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center of Nassau County's (HMTC) Golf Outing at the Meadow Brook Club in Jericho. All proceeds from the event go to support the Center's programming, which uses the history and lessons of the Holocaust to teach about the dangers of antisemitism, bullying, racism, and all other manifestations of intolerance. KD is a longtime supporter of the Center and is one of the sponsors of this year's event.

"As Ivan's friend, partner, and colleague at Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck for two decades, I am thrilled to see him recognized for his dedication to the fight against antisemitism and his contributions to the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center," said Keith Gutstein, board member at the HMTC and co-managing partner of the Long Island office of KD.

"This will be a very meaningful day in my life," said Dolowich, who is active in many Jewish organizations including HMTC, Jewish National Fund (JNF) and Temple Or Elohim in Jericho. "The mission of the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center is as relevant and important today as it has ever been, as we see antisemitism and racism prevalent throughout the country. I will continue to do whatever I can to support efforts to address these critical issues."

© 2024 Kaufman Dolowich. All Rights Reserved. | www.kaufmandolowich.com