

Matthew Solomon

Overview

Matthew Solomon focuses his practice on general liability matters, including premises liability law.

He represents property owners and developers in matters of personal injury and property damage. In premise liability matters, he represents various property owners, managing agents, commercial owners, store fronts, and apartment buildings, in cases arising from slip and falls, sidewalk cracks and holes, and ceiling collapses. Additionally, he defends ferry boats and marinas in premises liability matters. Mr. Solomon also defends clients in vertical transportation matters arising out of elevator and escalator personal injury, including defending claims involving misleveling, door strike and sudden stop incidents.

Additionally, Mr. Solomon handles professional liability matters, including cases defending dentists in malpractice claims.
