Preparing for the Cannabis Industry Coming to NY, Long Island Business News

By Jonathan B. Isaacson, partner and co-chair of KD's Cannabis Law practice group.
Long Island Business News | May 14, 2021

Now that New York has legalized recreational adult-use cannabis through the Marijuana Regulation and Taxation Act, many entrepreneurs are asking how and when they will be able to join this new and exciting industry, which by some estimates will create up to 60,000 new jobs and raise over $300,000,000 in annual tax revenue.

The short answer is that we don't know yet. (to continue reading, click on the link below and go to page 15)
