

Stefan Dandelles Speaker at Lloyd's Market Association, October 9, 2018

Stefan Dandelles is the speaker at the Lloyd's Market Association presentation of:

US Errors & Omissions: State Law & Jurisdictional Issues

This masterclass will discuss important differences in the laws of various US States, primarily concerning E&O business, relating to:

- the duty to defend
- insurability of punitive damages
- misrepresentations in the policy application.

The presentation will include details of some noteworthy issues that are currently impacting the fidelity/commercial crime market, including scenarios about social engineering, fraudulent impersonation and computer fraud. It will also highlight jurisdictional considerations from the different perspectives of underwriters, claims handlers and brokers.
